MYP Coordinator (Immediate Vacancy)

International School Nadi (ISN) has been deeply saddened by the sudden passing of its MYP Coordinator immediately prior to the commencement of the 2018 academic year. As a result of this sad event, the school has an immediate vacancy for an experienced MYP Coordinator.

ISN is a private co-educational school located in Nadi, Fiji. ISN is the only accredited International Baccalaureate Continuum World School in Fiji. It has an enthusiastic and hardworking staff and a happy and motivated student body. ISN has a current roll of 230 students, from 18 different nations. The school role has grown 20% in the last year and further growth is anticipated.

The Position

You should be experienced teaching the IB Middle Years Programme and be conversant with PYP and Diploma as well. Ideally you should have previous experience as an MYP Coordinator and be current with recent MYP and I.B. developments. Experience with Managebac and I.B. electronic systems of reporting and communication would be an advantage. This position is a blended management and teaching role. You will form part of the school's senior administration team that works collaboratively to ensure that the I.B. curriculum is delivered to the highest standard possible. The ability to teach Diploma TOK or Integrated Humanities would be an advantage.

The Package

In addition to a competitive salary, annual return flights, an accommodation allowance and international medical insurance is available to overseas candidates.

Applications for the above position close on Friday 16th of February. Should a suitable candidate apply ahead of this deadline, the school reserves the right to interview and appoint immediately.

A letter of application including full Curriculum Vitae, personal statement and the names and contacts of three referees who have been closely involved with you professionally, should be sent by mail to:
