PERMISSIONS

Medical Permission

Normally you will be consulted about medical treatment for your child that is more serious than basic first aid. There may however be circumstances when urgent treatment is needed or when we are unable to get hold of you or your emergency contacts. We would like your permission to administer the treatment that we see is best in this circumstance.

In a medical emergency, I consent for the school to take whatever action they deem necessary.

Yes

No

Field Trip Permission

Pupils at International School Nadi often participate in curricular activities such as class excursions, sporting activities and other school associated trips. Parents will be notified in advance of any particular activity that takes children out of school grounds, but signing below means we don't have to collect permission slips for each individual trip.

I give my permission for my child to take part in school excursions and to travel by bus or private car when necessary in order to do so.
